

FAIR CREDIT REPORTING ACT DISCLOSURE

Disclosure Regarding Consumer Reports

Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company and its affiliates with which you intend to contract (together, “Mutual of Omaha”) may obtain and use consumer reports about you in order to evaluate your eligibility to contract with Mutual of Omaha as an insurance producer or to remain contracted as an insurance producer for Mutual of Omaha.

California State Disclosure

For California applicants: Under California law, an “investigative consumer report” is a consumer report in which information on a consumer’s character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living is obtained through any means. Mutual of Omaha may obtain an investigative consumer report (which may include information described above) from an investigative consumer reporting agency (“ICRA”) on you in order to evaluate your eligibility to contract with Mutual of Omaha as an insurance producer. The nature and scope of this investigation includes your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living information, including criminal history and credit.

The ICRA preparing the investigative consumer report and conducting the investigation will be

Business Information Group, Inc.

Southampton, PA 18966
Phone: (800) 260-1680

Under California Civil Code section 1786.22, you are entitled to a visual inspection of files maintained on you by an ICRA, as follows:

- (1) In person, if you appear in person and furnish proper identification, during normal business hours and on reasonable notice. A copy of your file shall also be available to you for a fee not to exceed the actual costs of duplication services provided;
- (2) By certified mail, if you make a written request, with proper identification, for copies to be sent to a specified addressee. An ICRA complying with requests for certified mailings under California Civil Code section 1786.22 shall not be liable for disclosures to third parties caused by mishandling of mail after such mailings leave the ICRA;
- (3) A summary of all information contained in your files and required to be provided by California Civil Code section 1786.10 shall be provided to you by telephone, if you have made a written request, with proper identification for telephone disclosure, and the toll charges, if any, for the telephone call are prepaid by you or charged directly to you.

“Proper Identification,” as used above, means information generally deemed sufficient to identify you, which includes documents such as a valid driver’s license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. Only if you cannot identify yourself with such information may the ICRA require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history in order to verify your identity.

The ICRA will provide trained personnel to explain any information furnished to you pursuant to California Civil Code section 1786.10 and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in files maintained on you. This written explanation will be provided whenever a file is provided to you for visual inspection under California Civil Code section 1786.22.

You may be accompanied by one other person of your choosing, who must furnish reasonable identification. An ICRA may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the ICRA to discuss your file in such person’s presence.

YOUR AUTHORIZATION

By signing below, I authorize Mutual of Omaha to obtain and use consumer reports about me in order to evaluate my eligibility to contract with Mutual of Omaha as an insurance producer. If I am contracted with Mutual of Omaha, my authorization will remain valid for as long as I am contracted, such that, to the extent permitted by applicable law, I agree that Mutual of Omaha can procure additional consumer report(s) which may include criminal background checks, consumer credit reports and/or investigative consumer reports (as defined by federal law) without providing additional disclosures or obtaining additional authorizations.
