

ADDITIONAL DISCLOSURES FOR CALIFORNIA APPLICANTS

With your express authorization and consent, Tier One Insurance Company, and/or its subsidiaries, affiliates, other related entities, successors, and/or assigns (“Aflac”), may obtain a report about you for contracting purposes that is defined under the California Investigative Consumer Reporting Agencies Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§ 1786 to 1786.80, as an “investigative consumer report.” The report will be prepared by:

Applicant Insight, Inc.
5652 Meadowlane Street
New Port Richey, FL, 34652
www.applicantinsight.com
1-800-771-7703

Information regarding Applicant Insight’s privacy practices (including information about whether any consumer personal information will be sent outside the U.S. or its territories) may be found at www.applicantinsight.com.

The report provided by Applicant Insight may include information on your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. Such information will be used to evaluate whether you would present an unacceptable risk of theft or other dishonest behavior in your performance of the contract for which you are being considered.

Pursuant to section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, you may view the file maintained on you by Applicant Insight during normal business hours. You may obtain a copy of the file, upon submitting proper identification and paying the costs of duplication services, by appearing at Applicant Insight’s offices in person, during normal business hours and on reasonable notice, or by certified mail. You may also receive a summary of the file by telephone, upon submitting proper identification and a written request. Applicant Insight has trained personnel available to explain your file to you, including any coded information, and will provide a written explanation of any coded information contained in your file. If you appear in person, you may be accompanied by one other person, provided that person furnishes proper identification. “Proper identification” includes documents such as a valid driver’s license, social security account number, military identification card, and credit cards. If you cannot identify yourself with such information, the consumer reporting agency may require additional information concerning your employment and personal or family history to verify your identity.
