

ADDITIONAL STATE DISCLOSURES REGARDING AN INTENTION TO OBTAIN A CONSUMER REPORT ABOUT YOU FOR CONTRACTING PURPOSES

If you live in or are applying for a contract in any of the following states, please take note:

- ☐ CALIFORNIA: Because the contract you are being considered for with Aflac will involve (1) access to confidential financial and other business information and valuable property belonging to Aflac and its customers, and (2) regular access to bank or credit card account information, Social Security numbers, and/or dates of birth, a consumer report about you is necessary and important for Aflac to review in order to evaluate whether you would present an unacceptable risk of theft or other dishonest behavior in the performance of your contract. Accordingly, Aflac intends to obtain a consumer report about you for contracting purposes pursuant to section 1024.5(a)(7) of the California Labor Code. You may elect to receive a copy of the report, free of charge, by checking the box beneath your signature as indicated below.
- ☐ MINNESOTA: Aflac intends to obtain a consumer report about you for contracting purposes. You may elect to receive a copy of the report, free of charge, by checking the box beneath your signature as indicated below. You also have the right, under M.S.A. § 13C.02, subd. 3, to request additional information on the nature of the report by submitting a written request to General Information Services, the consumer reporting agency whose contact information is shown below, for a complete and accurate disclosure of the nature and scope of any consumer report Aflac ordered about you. If you make a request to GIS for such additional information, GIS has the obligation to mail or deliver the above-described disclosure to you within five days after either your request for disclosure, or Aflac's request for a consumer report about you, is received, whichever date is later.
- ☐ NEW YORK: Aflac may request, with your written authorization as expressed by your signature below, a consumer report about you in connection with your application to contract with Aflac. You have the right, upon your request, to be informed of whether or not Aflac requested a consumer report about you. If Aflac does request a consumer report about you, the report will be prepared and provided by the consumer reporting agency whose contact information is shown below. If you are selected to contract with Aflac, subsequent consumer reports may be requested or utilized in connection with any updates, renewals, or extensions of your contract with Aflac for which this application was made.
- ☐ OKLAHOMA: Aflac intends to obtain a consumer report about you for contracting purposes. You may elect to receive a copy of the report, free of charge, by checking the box beneath your signature as indicated below.
- ☐ COLORADO / CONNECTICUT / HAWAII / ILLINOIS / MARYLAND / NEVADA / OREGON / VERMONT / WASHINGTON STATE: Aflac may obtain, with your written authorization as expressed by your signature below, a consumer report about you for contracting purposes. The report may contain information bearing on your creditworthiness, credit standing, and/or credit capacity. Because the contract for which you are being considered will involve access to confidential financial and other business information and valuable property belonging to Aflac and its customers, a consumer report about you is necessary and important for Aflac to review in order to evaluate whether you would present an unacceptable risk of theft or other dishonest behavior in the performance of your contract. Accordingly, by your signature below you acknowledge and agree that Aflac has a bona fide purpose for requesting a consumer report about you that is substantially related to the job for which you are being considered, and that Aflac has clearly disclosed that purpose to you through the statements set forth herein.
